MANAGING COMMERCIAL DISPUTES

A smarter way to resolve commercial disputes

It's estimated that around £40 billion is locked up or written off each year by UK businesses due to unresolved commercial disputes and bad debt. But there is now another way - the award-winning Escalate platform.

It's a fact of life. At some point all businesses experience problems over bad debt, contractual disputes, negligence, IP infringement and other frustrating, time-consuming, costly distractions. Often, the cost implications of pursuing a claim, both in money and time, are perceived to be so great that the whole thing is put down to experience and any loss is written off.

That's where Davey Law, in partnership with Escalate, can help.

Escalate is a multi-award-winning process that eliminates financial risk and prioritises cash flow, and there are no restrictions on the size or type of case we can tackle, even if the dispute was previously written off.

Benefits of working with Davey Law in partnership with Escalate

Commercial disputes are part of corporate life for even the most successful businesses - but they can cause considerable damage when they're simply written off.

Over £40 billion a year is locked up or lost by SMEs because they don't believe that there is a cost-effective solution to resolve their disputes. High upfront costs, spiralling legal bills and the average litigation case spanning 18 months, mean that many businesses reluctantly decide against pursuing valid claims.

Escalate is a multiple-award-winning dispute solution that helps rather than hinders your cashflow. Using a team of experienced dealmakers to negotiate on your behalf, the process aims to get a result in less than three months.

It's a revolutionary approach that removes all of your financial risk, including funding your claim all the way to the High Court if necessary, so that you can focus on running your business.

Cases that Escalate has worked on:

Business sale

Resolved a disputed earn-out payment of £325,000.

Intellectual property

Helped recover £350,000 share of revenue from new software sales.

Defective product

Agreed a settlement following the purchase of a defective product and subsequent customer claims.

"The Escalate team really took this on and did not waiver. Escalate is a truly game-changing process that has enabled us as a mere minnow to swim with sharks and hold them to account. You have given us a chance to carve out a future that would have otherwise been very difficult and would have no doubt meant the end of our business. You have no idea what this means for my family and the families of Kevin and Jim. I am eternally grateful"
